Miss Clipper's Anecdotes, Personalities and Comments, CONCERNING STAGE FOLK and Sometimes OTHERS

BY JOSEPHINE GRO.

An instance where a clever piece of acting was the cause of the summary dismissal of an actor's services is told of a member of Richard Mansfield's "Richard III" company. The company had assembled for rehearsal and the actor-manager had not yet appeared on the scene. During the wait a young actor, whose powers of mimicry were unusual, amused the few who stood near him with a few lines of the star's part, cleverly burlesquing that dignified personage. He was ending with the well known Mansfieldian bow, when the grace of it was interrupted by the resonant tones of the star as he was approaching the box entrance to the stage, by way of the side aisles, his figure yet invisible.

"Clever—exceedingly clever," exclaimed the star, "so cleverly acted that more than one of us would be superfluous in the company."

In companies where a large force of extra people are required, it is necessary to keep a record of the work of this force, and to assign each of them a number, so that when reporting for duty each night the assistant stage manager may check them off the list.

About two hundred supernumeraries were employed in Wright Lorimer's production of "The Shepherd King," and one night during this checking off process it was discovered that while Mr. Lorimer was only playing "King David," one of the extra Nubians (from Eighth Avenue) had some right to the name.

In the temporary absence of the assistant stage manager one of the members of the company was asked to replace him in checking the extras as they passed the stage door, one of whom belonged to the Nubian group.

"What's your number?" asked the assistant.

"Didn't git none yit, boss," replied the darkey, "but mah name's David, Suh."

"What's your other name?" was the next question asked.

"King, Suh," was the answer.

"Ah, David King," said the assistant, looking down the list for the name.

"No, Suh," objected the darkey, "King David, Suh." And it was afterwards found that this was the name by which he was known.

Wright Lorimer relates an amusing story of his reception at the home of an English friend, who resides in one of London's suburbs.

"I was making an unexpected call upon this friend," said Lorimer. "When the servant answered my ring I asked if Mr. Arbutmart was in."

"Master has gone out," was the reply.

"Then I will see Mrs. Arbutmart—is she in?"

"Missis has gone out too."

"Well, I think I'll come in and warm myself by the fire before going back to London."

"You're most welcome to come in, Sir," said the servant, "but the fire's gone out too, Sir."

Leon Herrmann has condensed his two hour entertainment into a vaudeville turn of thirty minutes, and has secured a year's booking on the different circuits. During the Summer season at Manhattan Beach he will give an entertainment every afternoon, in the pavilion, his performance being interspersed with music by a popular band.

This well known prestidigitateur relates two experiences in his clever manipulations that were not performed upon the stage.

One happened during an engagement in New Orleans. With some friends, he visited the famous old French market, the mecca of all tourists to this Southern city. On the stand of one of the old market women was a pile of eggs—about four dozen. One of Mr. Herrmann's friends suggested his illustrating his sleight of hand ability with the vendor's eggs, and, to amuse them, he approached the white capped old person.

"How much are your eggs?" he asked.

"Twenty-two cents a dozen this morning, Sir," was the reply.

"Are they perfectly fresh?" was the next question.

"Indeed they are," indignantly answered the old woman.

"Well, let us see if you're right," said Herrmann, proceeding to break one of the eggs, and from within the shell of which he appeared to take a silver half dollar. Putting it in the hand of the woman, he reached for another egg, with which he performed the same trick, again presenting the prize to the owner of the eggs, thus indemnifying her for the possible loss of more than four dozen of them.

Having passed three of four stalls the party turned to see the old woman in the act of rapidly breaking up her egg stock, of one of this gardener's cabbages. Tendering a shilling to the owner, the magician reached across the stand for a small cabbage, which he cut in halves with a sharp knife he had taken from his pocket. Snugly embedded in the centre was the missing watch, which was drawn forth, to the astonishment of the owner of the vegetables, and the amusement of the party, who quickly realized that they had been witnessing one of the clever tricks of their friend. After cutting into another, and finding coin therein, he said to the gardener:

"I will take half a dozen of your cabbages."

At the suggestion of one of the club members a tall step ladder was brought in, and the magician was persuaded to mount and pencil his autograph beside the "seven of hearts," which adorned the ceiling in proof of his skill.

Florence Sarto, a member of "The Little Outcast" company, recently overheard two countrymen indulging in a unique discussion of herself. They were seated in the dining car, en route between Cincinnati and Chicago, when the actress entered and took the next table.

"I'll bet she b'longs to the troop that played 'Little Castout' in taown yestidy," said one of the Hoosiers.

"Nope," said the other, "I think she's the tight rope walker in the circus we saw the day before—'ralse she did that jugglin' scene you got so stuck on."

A moment later the waiter entered with a portion of Miss Sarto's luncheon, which consisted of a rum omelet, in a blue blaze of burning liquor.

"By gum!" one of the men exclaimed, "none of us wuz right—she's the fire eater we saw in one of the side shows."

SWEET CIDER.

The dapper waiter lingers—
What shall I drink tonight?
I turn, with listless fingers,
The wine list to the light;
And while I scan it, thinking
That wine has lost its charm,
I dream once more of drinking
Sweet cider at the farm.

From Grandad's ancient settle,
Before the crackling blaze,
I watch the sizzling kettle—
A merry tune it plays.
There, when the corn was snapping,
And apples sizzled and steamed,
With Grandad slyly napping,
My sweetest dreams were dreamed.

The Winter wind, snow laden,
Coaxed up the roaring flames,
And there a rosy maiden
Sat by and played me games;
There Love, who heard the clinking
Of glasses, came and saw
Two happy lovers drinking
Sweet cider through a straw.

Snug-sheltered from the weather,
At Boreas we laughed,
And quenched our thirst
together
In that cool amber draught.
That drink of Grandad's making,
I pressed in the mill hard by,
Set no light head to aching,
Turned no bright speech awry.

Stilled are the clinking glasses,
Long vanished is your smile,
Oh rosiest of lasses;
But still I dream, and while
My gray mustache I'm dipping
In wine without a flaw,
I see your red lips sipping
Sweet cider through a straw.

FRANK ROE BACHELDER, in Lippincott's.

BOTH WERE COMPLIMENTED.

It may not be generally known that the Government conducts an institution for giving pleasure to the blind. A room is set apart for them at the Congressional Library, and entertainments are given there. Etta Josselyn Giffin is the official in charge, and in addition to these entertainments she takes parties of the blind to the theatre each week, the tickets being contributed by the managers.

After Julia Marlowe's performance of "Ingomar" Miss Giffin took her blind guests up and introduced them to the star. One old gentleman, after thanking Miss Marlowe for the pleasure she had given him, added:

"And I want also to thank you for the pleasure I enjoyed in hearing your voice in 'Everyman.'"

Miss Giffin, having heard of the jealousies of theatrical favorites, was appalled and hastened to check him.

"This is not Miss Matthison, it is Miss Marlowe, Mr. Blank," she said, hurriedly. But Miss Marlowe stopped her with a charming smile, and warmly shook the old man's hand.

"You have paid me the prettiest compliment possible in mistaking my voice for such a beautiful voice as Miss Matthison's," she said, in a tone so sunny and sincere that the last trace of embarrassment disappeared.

—N. Y. Times.

Evidently the cupidity of the dull appearing individual had been aroused, for he replied:

"They're not for sale, Sir."

Upon the ceiling at the Bohemian Club, of Montreal, is a souvenir of Herrmann's visit there. Among his most difficult card tricks is that in which a guest selects a card and personally replaces it in the pack, which is then thrown at the ceiling. All the cards drop to the floor except the one selected, which sticks fast to the ceiling. Herrmann sometimes fails to overcome the difficulties of this trick, but on this occasion was for-anxiously examining the shells, while around her was a group of market people as deeply interested as she.

Mr. Herrmann performed a similar trick in the old Montreal, Can., market place.

"What time is it?" he asked of one of the party as they were passing a stall piled with vegetables. The gentleman reached for his watch, and, to his dismay, found the pocket empty.

"Heavens! my watch has been taken," he exclaimed.

"Perhaps it is not far away," said Herrmann, "I think it will be found in the heart

FAIRS FOR 1904.

Following our annual custom, we present a list of fairs for the coming season which has been announced up to the present time. The clashing of dates, the frequent changes and practical impossibility of collecting all the material combine to make a list of this kind only approximately correct; nevertheless, those fairs we record here, made up from the official fair lists, etc., will be found useful to many classes of showmen who have not yet arranged their routes for the coming season. The letters preceding dates stand for the months, as Jan. for June, July, for August, for September, etc. When no initial letter precedes the date it signifies that the month is that last indicated. Later we will print a supplemental list.

EVERHART.

Who has met with such phenomenal success in Europe, in his hoop rolling act, is now playing a few American dates. He has been playing the Eastern vaudeville houses, including three engagements over the Keith circuit, and is now on a short Western tour, which will include Chicago and St. Louis. He is returning to Europe August, having booked ahead for nearly two years. Everhart is now using two assistants in his act, and has introduced so much material that it is nearly a new act.

WELSH BROS. SHOWS NOTES.—The States of Connecticut and Massachusetts are giving us first class business, and the show is making an unmistakable hit. Stamford, South Norwalk, Ansonia, Meriden and New Britain, all in Connecticut, being especially noteworthy for extra big business. Memorial Day was spent at Southbridge, Mass., where three "big show" performances were given. Morning, afternoon and evening, all to good crowds. Lee's Supplementary Shows (annex) gave seventeen performances on this occasion. Another new fifty foot middle piece has been added to the main top, which will now enable us to handle the crowds in better shape. Since leaving Winter quarters we have added twelve horses and mules to the equine department, also a pair of exceptionally fine menage horses to the circus programme. Although the performance we are now giving is unusually meritorious and strong we have decided to add a half dozen more acts, including several riding displays, which will enable us to give a first class two ring show. All of the people with the aggregation are well and happy, and everything is moving along with vim and in a most harmonious manner. San Francisco, Cal. and Johnson, and Toto Ducrow recently joined the show.

CHAS. HOPPER, singing and talking comedian, with the Great Eastern Circus, doing singing clown, and a black face turn in the concert.

J. B. SWOFFORD has been engaged as general agent of Sipe's new shows.

FRANK M. WEEKS, singer, buck and wing dancer and banjoist, has joined the Doremus Top Circus, as principal comedian.

He said he had been studying work and production of our act for the past week, and without a word of flattery, he said he was the best act he had ever seen. He is a man who understands gymnastics thoroughly."

MATTIE KEENE almost lost her life through mistaking a poison for medicine. NADAM, from Moscow's Police Entertainers.—We opened the Summer season under canvas at Elizabeth, W. Va., May 16, to S. R. O., and Grantsville, W. SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—At the Columbia Theatre Maude Adams is in her second and last week in "The Little Minister." E. H. Southern in "The Proud Prince" follows 13, for two weeks.

CALIFORNIA THEATRE.—This is the third week of the company now playing here, which was formerly called the Nell-Morocco Co., but which is now called the Oliver Morocco Co. James Neil having disposed of all his interest in the old company. "The Cavalier" is the current bill.

ALCAZAR THEATRE.—"Under Two Flags" is the current offering. "Lovers Lane" is in preparation.

CENTRAL THEATRE.—"The Peddler" is this week's offering.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Sunday, 5 (matinee), marked the opening of the sixth and last week of the engagement of Melbourne MacDowell and company. The play is "The Captain of Navarre." A three weeks' special engagement of Mrs. Leslie Carter and company, in "Du Barry," begins 13.

TIVOLI OPERA HOUSE.—The first production in this city of "Sergeant Kitch" occurred last night, with Lillian Sefton in the prima donna role.

FISCHER'S THEATRE.—This is the second week of "U. S."

ORPHEUM THEATRE.—Bill for the current week, opening Sunday, 5: Avon Comedy Four, Fruity Snatchcock, Lord Russell, Tom Waters and Co. Marcel's living art studies, Powers Bros., Farrar, Cole and Co., Gaston and Stone, and the biograph.

CHUTES.—Programme opening 6: Gus K. Russo, Alfons, Pence and Allen, Walsh and Lagra, Mildred Manning, Jones, Sylvester and Cameron, and the animatroscope.

NOTE.—Associate Manager Charles W. Strine, of the Tivoli Opera House, has returned from New York, with contracts signed by numerous well-known players, including Lillian Sefton, Kate Condon, Barron, Bertold, Floye Redledge, Willard Simms and others. From a private letter received by me from some of the members of the American Travesty Stars, at Honolulu, H. I., under date of May 25, I note that the houses were sold out in advance for every performance (ten shows), and they tried to get them to extend over one steamer, but the members of the company rebelled. They appeared at the Orpheum theatre holding $200 at prices from 25 cents to $1. The country is very dull just now, owing to an overproduction of sugar. Comedian Kolb has been told he has consumption, and that he had better quit work. He will return here to America some time, one of the girls (Sydney Roberts). They were to leave June 1 for Sydney, Australia.

FROM OTHER POINTS.

Hot Weather Draws Good Patronage to the Open Air Resorts Along the Line.

CHICAGO, June 7.—"A Business man" was originally acted at McVicker's Sunday night, and was fairly well received by the critics and the public. "The Tenderfoot" attracted a fair house to the Illinois, opening Sunday night. "The Wizard of Oz" at the Grand; "The Maid and the Mummy" at the Garrick, and "York State Folks" at the Great Northern, were continued attractions, which prospered. "The Earl of Hawtucker" closed Sunday night at Powers, being replaced Monday night by "Vivian's Paps." The Bijou began the last week of the season with "A Hidden Crime," and the stock houses had a prosperous Sunday.

Next week will be the last at the Rush Temple. Summer opera began Monday night at the Peoples. Stock burlesque, at Sam T. Jack's and the Trocadero, pleased large houses Sunday. "The Royal Child" passed its hundredth performance at the La Salle Monday night. Vaudeville bills at the Chicago Opera House and Cleveland's played to capacity business. "The Sho-Gun" began its final week at the Studebaker Sunday night. Sans Souci and the Water Chutes enjoyed a good Sunday in spite of the threatening weather. The Gentry Bros. Pony and Dog Show started a tour of the South side Sunday most prosperously.

St. Louis, June 7.—For the first time in many weeks the opening of the week is in fair weather. In consequence attendance at the World's Fair is very heavy. At the Century excellent attendance saw the opening of "A Girl from Dixie." The Olympic continues with "A Country Girl," and Crawford's is in the fifth week of "Quincy Adams Sawyer." Kralffy's "Louisiana," at the Odéon; and Hayes' "Louisiana," at Deimar Garden, both opened to excellent business at their second week's beginning. The Highlands drew big crowds Sunday, with a new vaudeville bill. West End Heights retains its burlesque company in another place that opened well. Vaudeville at the Suburban drew heavy Sunday business. Vaudeville at Mannion's, the Broadway Musée and the Globe opened to fair patronage. The Cherry Blossoms are at the Standard.

Boston, June 7.—Cool and threatening weather made it possible for the indoor houses to do some business. "The Queen of Laughter" was given its first local production at the Colonial by the Bostonians, and was favorably received. A large audience was present at the Woodland, Tremont; "The Isle of Spice" at the Globe, and "Sky Farm," at Music Hall, were hold-overs, with business averaging good. The stock, vaudeville and burlesque patronage was up to usual winter mark.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Edwin Arden Co., at the Columbia, had a good house to witness "Too Much Johnson." The new stock company at the Academy, under the management of Fred B. Genger Jr., opened last night in "The Princess of Patch," to excellent business. The Aborn Opera Stock, at the Lafayette, presented "The Wedding Day," to a full house. Agas was the top liner to a fine bill at Chase's, to full houses, afternoon and night. "The Last Days of Pompeii" opened to large business last night. The Lyceum Stock, at the Lyceum Theatre, had an excellent opening last night.

KANSAS CITY, June 7.—The Gillis closed its season with two performances Sunday, to good houses. "Too Much Cohen" and "The Moonshiner's Daughter" were the plays presented. Auditions of the new company Macey and company gave good performances of "Rip Van Winkle," to good Sunday attendance. Forest Park was packed Sunday. In Hopkins' Theatre George Wilson was the headline of a good vaudeville bill. Electric Park drew an immense throng to hear Liberator's Band, and in the German Village Gillman and Murray were the features.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Only fair openings for the few open theatres ruled last night, which was the hottest of the year, and put a damper on the attendance. Vaudeville, at Keith's, enjoyed good patronage. "Bob White" continued to draw well at the Park, and the production of "The Iron Master," at the Bijou, met with favor. Entertaining and interesting were given at the Lyceum and Trocadero, and were well attended. Hot weather sent Philadelphia to the outdoor parks in droves.

LOUISVILLE, June 7.—The Imperial Marine Band, of Germany, opened at the Jockey Club Park before an immense crowd. The band was met at its destination, on a deserted through the principal streets.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE.—Eugene Moore, the former popular leading man of the Thauhorst Stock Co., returns to the cast June 6, in "Humility." His friends at the Thauhorst give him a welcome out of the ordinary. "Caprice" was the offering week of May 30. Florence Rockwell, who replaced Edith Evelyn, for the Summer, scored a decided success in her opening week. Constance Bell was warmly received after a long absence.

DAVIDSON THEATRE.—Sherman Brown, manager. Vaudeville has caught on at this house, and no mistake. Full attendance was in evidence week of 50. Helen Bertram was the top liner. Bill for week of June 6: Robert Fulgura, Artie Hall, Cliff Dean & Co., Mary Madden, Kelt and Rusick, Fred Hawthorne and Co., J. A. Probst.

CRYSTAL THEATRE.—Manager F. B. Winter offers S. P. Rudick, Dragon T. Co., Ger Marrella, Bonnie Male, Fred and May Waddell for week of June 6. Business is good.

GRAND THEATRE.—Continued prosperity rules at this house. Bill week of 6: The Four Burzells, Pauline Condelee, Davies, Ed. and Rolo Wynn, and the Watson Trio.

FORST KELLER.—Carl Fischer, Mary Alba, and the Duffy Trio are booked for week of 6. STAR THEATRE.—The Blue Ribbon Girls, who opened the season at this popular house, return week of 5, with the City Club to follow week of 11. The Dainty Parrot Co. had them coming in such a manner that Manager T. R. Trotman had his figures on the right side at the end of the week.

BIJOU OPERA HOUSE.—J. R. Pierce, resident manager. "The Game Boys" in Missouri, week of May 29, played to one of the largest week's business of the season, which, by the way, was one of the best seasons this house has had in many years.

ALABAMA.

MOBILE.—At the Monroe Park Theatre (M. A. McDermott, manager), the Marie Dale Co. closed a very successful engagement of four weeks at this house May 30, and left for Meridian, Miss., for one week. The Thorne-Baker Opera Co. opened its Summer engagement 31, to a large audience. The company is the best seen here in the past three seasons, ever since Manager McDermott first introduced opera here. The opening number was "Il Trovatore." The leading member of the company, both as an artist and in point of popular favor, was Miss Thorne, who received all her popularity with the Mobile theatregoers. This fact was shown by the continuous applause which followed her throughout the entire production on the opening night, and the beautiful floral tributes which she received gracefully acknowledged at three different stages in the opera. Miss Thorne was never heard here to better advantage, and the initial performance of the company was a decided success. The Summer opera seems destined to prove as popular as in the past.

NOTES.—J. G. Hines, for many years stage carpenter at the Mobile Theatre, holds a similar position with the Thorne-Baker Opera Co. at Monroe Park. J. W. (Pinkie) Murphy has accepted a position with the Marie Dale Co. as stage carpenter.

William Brogley, for the past two seasons property man at the Mobile Theatre, has accepted a position with the Marie Dale Co. as programmer. Last Friday night, May 27, Miss Thorne and the members of her company gave a delightful recital to Miss Thorne's many friends here, which event took place in the spacious dining rooms of the Blenville Hotel. An excellent programme was rendered, and was much enjoyed by all present. After the recital an informal reception was held, and the members of the company were introduced to the large audience.

KANSAS.

TOPEKA.—Parker's Midway of twenty-one shows began a week's stand May 30, to good business.

VINEWOOD PARK.—(Frank Kelly, manager).—This resort will open its season June 6, playing bands and open air attractions. The park is under the management of the street car company.

—Marie Griffith died at her home in Canonsburg, Pa., May 31, at three o'clock, A. M., of typhoid fever, aged nineteen years. Miss Griffith was widely known among the arctic people.

DEATHS IN THE PROFESSION.

CHEVALIER AUGUST WEIGAND, an organist and composer, died at a hospital in Oswego, N. Y., on May 20. He was organist and professor at the Royal Conservatoire, at Liege, Belgium, and gave many concerts abroad and in this country.

MRS. MARTHA M. HERSET, an old time actress, died recently at the home of her daughter, Martha L. E. Butler, at Elmhurst, Mass., aged eighty-five years. She was once a leading woman for Edwin Booth. The remains were interred in Potter's Field, as she was absolutely penniless.

MICHAEL J. CASEY, of Casey and Ward, died recently at Prescott, Ariz., from tuberculosis, aged twenty-nine years.

J. B. RUSSELL, manager of the Auditorium, Newark, O., for several seasons past, died in that city on May 10.

FRANK W. GASKILL, a notice of whose death appeared in these columns last week, was born at Alliance, O., forty-five years ago, and that city was his residence until 1898. At the age of fifteen his father died, and the support of a large family of brothers and sisters devolved upon young Gaskill. At the time of his death his father was engaged in grading a section of railroad running out of Alliance. Gaskill took up the work where his father left off, and carried it forward to a successful completion. Before he was of age he embarked in the grocery business, and from a small beginning became the leading merchant of his native town. At one time he controlled the leading grocery store, a bakery, an ice cream factory, an ice plant and a fish market. For the last eight years of his residence in Alliance he added the Opera House to his list of enterprises, and managed several large attractions through a circuit of Ohio towns. In 1898 Mr. Gaskill became proprietor of the Hotel Yohe, at Canton, O., and during that year the Elks put on their first street carnival. Mr. Gaskill was an active member of the working committee, and readily recognized the possibilities of a circuit of fairground shows, with all the amusement features and attractions furnished by an organization. During the Winter of 1898 and '99 he booked a circuit of twenty cities, and organized the Canton Carnival Co. It was an innovation in the amusement world, but inside of three weeks of its opening, the Canton Carnival Co. was an established success. The season of 1899 proved a most prosperous and successful one in the history of street fairs, but the year 1900 was just as disastrous as 1899 was successful. Undaunted by the failure of the previous season, Mr. Gaskill launched, in 1901, the Gaskill Canton Carnival Co., and in a short space of time the carnival business was rehabilitated on new lines. In 1902 Mr. Gaskill formed a partnership with P. J. Mundy, and another successful season followed. In 1903 Mr. Gaskill controlled two shows—the Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Co. and the Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt Carnival Co. The Gaskill-Mundy Co., in 1903, according to announcements, broke all previous records. At the end of the season of 1903 the partnership consisting of Messrs. Gaskill, Mundy & Levitt, was dissolved. In 1904 Mr. Gaskill launched the Gaskill Carnival Co., which he had equipped most elaborately, and the opening weeks proved that his judgment was good. One week before his death he had completed arrangements for launching, in 1905, the biggest amusement enterprise he ever offered the public. He had completed arrangements for forming a $250,000 stock company, and agents were already at work at the time of his death securing stock and contracting for equipment. Among the three hundred people in Mr. Gaskill's employ at the time of his death at least two-thirds of them were in business relations with him for periods ranging from three to six years. W. J. McLeod, a musician, of London, Can., and connected with the Opera House orchestra there, died at his home, in that city, May 19.

FRANK THOMPSON, a well known vaudeville performer, died at Edgewater, Col., May 11, from tuberculosis. The remains were interred at Riverside Cemetery, that city, on May 17. His widow, Mary Thompson, survives him.

F. S. SMITH, who was business manager for numerous traveling theatrical companies, died recently on the train near Del Rio, Tex., while en route to his home in Beaumont, Tex., from Seattle, Wash. Death was due to pulmonary trouble. He was born in Hope, Lavaca County, Tex., on Oct. 9, 1873, and first became identified with the theatrical profession in 1895, as business manager for the Ethel Tucker Stock Co. A few years later he severed his connection with this company and acted in the capacity of business manager for various Southern companies, among them the Hoyt Stock, where, with Belvidere, Madam Redan, and later, the Redmond Stock. It was while with the latter company that a chronic pulmonary trouble acquired an acute stage, owing to the climatic conditions of the Northwest. The remains were interred at Beaumont, May 5.

TINTO KISHI, a Japanese performer, was dashed to death in the circus arena at Luna Park, Coney Island, N. Y., evening of Sunday, June 5, while making a slide of about two hundred feet down an incline. He was a member of the Kimura Japanese troupe, and was twenty-two years of age. A little before seven o'clock in the evening of June 5 he started to take the slide, and as he shot down the incline, he lost his balance, and it was apparent he was going to fall. He made a frantic but fruitless effort to catch himself, then plunged to the arena, crashing upon his head. He was carried out and taken to the Emergency Hospital, where it was found his skull was fractured, and he died shortly after.

ROBERT GANTZBERG, who was formerly an actor, died May 30, at his home, 127 Washington Street, Hoboken, N. J. He was born in Berlin, Germany, April 12, 1855, and for the past twenty-five years was the owner of the Gantzberg Concert Hall, Hoboken. He was a member of many lodges and societies. He leaves a wife and one daughter.

JOHN HART, an old time actor, died June 2, in New York City. The remains were interred in the Actors' Fund plot, services being held at the Actors' Union rooms. Arthur Moreland, a former partner of Mr. Hart, delivered the eulogy.

RUDOLPH HENNING, a violinist virtuoso of considerable note, died Saturday, June 4, at his residence, 2010 Locust Street, Philadelphia. He was born in Mecklenburg, Germany, in 1845, and when six years of age made his debut as a violinist. He studied in the Conservatory of Music at Leipzig, and was a pupil of the composer, Moscheles. For a number of years he played in concerts in Europe, and traveled for some time as a soloist with Rubinstein, the pianist. In 1867-68 Mr. Henning played with the Thomas' Orchestra, and in 1869 went to Philadelphia, where he founded the Philadelphia Musical Academy. In 1871 he became a member of the Mendelssohn Quintet, with which he played as a cellist eight years. He returned to Philadelphia in 1879 and had since resided here, devoting himself to teaching and often playing in concerts. A brother, a sister and a son survive him.

JOHN PARRY, thirty-five years old, recently assistant manager of the New York Theatre, which closed its season at the Majestic Theatre, New York, recently, committed suicide afternoon of June 5, at the corner of Thirty-seventh Street and Seventh Avenue, New York, by drinking carbolic acid.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis.—The past week found any amount of clever attractions, and the weather did its best to kill them with copious showers. However, attendance was of fair average all along the line. St. Louis has so many different offerings that the weary seeker for amusement hardly knows which way to turn. It has long had the reputation of being a big Summer show town, and that, too, when the ad hoc houses were about open, besides the permanent ones. It is almost all of the down town theatres and the special offerings for the Exposition period, and, furthermore, the Exposition itself, with its forty-four theatres on the Pike. The WORLD'S FAIR.—The memory of the oldest inhabitant does not run to such a spell of weather as St. Louis has had this Spring. It is as though the Fates were trying to hurt the fair. The hard Winter was a serious setback to the completion of the fair buildings, and April, of which so much was hoped, brought little except snow and rain. May also had something like twenty-five rainy days to her credit, and June thus far has brought a long succession of terrific thunder storms. Meanwhile the public is seeing the fair from under umbrellas. It is also interesting to note that the hardest rains came on Saturdays and legal holidays, when the fair might naturally expect tremendous attendance. Decoration Day brought a downpour, and Missouri Day, June 3, was unique in the vigor of the thunder showers. The Pike is a big sufferer, of course, but it is wonderful how well patronized its attractions have been. Retain's "Creation" and his other attractions have closed each week to the good. Manager Murphy, with the Irish village, and Hole's fire fighters, have kept both of his offerings paying. Akana's Mysterious Asia is a winner even now, and Tobin's cliff dwellers have always had good patronage. Hagenbeck's and the Tyrolean Alps are two more that the public have insisted on patronizing.

OLYMPIC (P. Short, manager).—"A Country Girl" was offered at the Olympic week of May 30. Miss Deyo appeared in the title role, and was extremely well received. The same company will present "The Runaway Girl," "San Toy" and "The Geisha Girl," and will continue its engagement indefinitely.

CENTURY (P. Short, manager).—"Week of May 30, Richard Carle, in 'The Tenderfoot,' played to crowded houses. 'A Girl from Dixie,' written by Harry B. Smith, was the offering week of June 6. Grasso (John G. Sheehy, manager).—"The Grand will remain dark until August. CRAWFORD (O. T. Crawford, manager).—"Quincy Adams Sawyer" is being produced for the fourth week at Crawford's, to excellent business. It will continue to play indefinitely. HAVLIN'S (Wm. Garen, manager).—"Week of May 30 Inez Forman, in 'East Lynne,' played to fairly good attendance. Havlin's closed for the Summer season evening of June 4. IMPERIAL (D. R. Russell, manager).—"The Irish play, 'Arrah-na-Pogue,' with Barney Gilmore in the leading role, received good patronage. Angeline Pullis and Edwin Boring also did well. The house will close for the season evening of 4. DUEON (Geo. F. Diendorf, manager).—"Kralffy's Louisiana Purchase Spectacle saw fairly good attendance week of May 30. A special performance was given week of 28, to invited guests only, and the house was crowded with prominent people. Especially notable were the prominent foreigners present from the foreign commissions at the Exposition. Unfortunately Mr. Kralffy was unable to obtain possession of the house as soon as he anticipated, and as a result the offering dragged a good deal at this, but it was especially enjoyed by the management announced from the stage at the introduction that the performance was only given to their friends and was in the nature of a dress rehearsal, and the best of feeling prevailed. The Dean of Spectacular Productions has never consumed a piece more brilliantly and effectively. The stage pictures and baller effects will be remembered for many years to come. The leading people in this big cast are: Ensy Alton, Grace Belmont, Harriet Burr, Edith Cone, Fred Collins, Gracie B. Lane, Flo Marcell, Mabel McCarne, Margaret Jane Robinson, Margaret Vinton, and Bertha White. COLUMBIA (Middleton & Tate, managers).—"The doors remain closed until August. STANDARD (Leo Beecherbach, manager).—"The Merry Maidens opens June 5, for a week. Last week the Cherry Blossoms closed a week's engagement. WEST END HEIGHTS (Fent Farham, manager).—"The vaudeville is changed to a musical comedy for the rest of the season. Week of May 29 offered Beatrice Harlow as leading lady, assisted by Marie Bagerton, Annie Morris, Lulu Keegan, Madge Fox and others, who lead in a very capable stock company, known as the National Extravaganza. In which, especially enjoyed, giving two shows each evening, at 8 and 9:30 o'clock. It will have an orchestra of twelve pieces. CASINO THEATRE (E. P. Churchill, manager).—"This resort opened May 29 with the largest number of any previous opening. There were 3,500 people matinee and night. Decoration Day was beyond all former days. For week of June 5: Davis, McCauley & Co., Miller and Kresko, Billy Link, Leo and Chapman, and Willette Charette.

The St. Louis Players' Club gave a testimonial performance, 3, at Pickwick Theatre, for King Haggart, who has just returned home at the closing of the tour of "The Queen of the Highway."

Five distinct and terrific showers afternoon of June 3 stopped the car lines and flooded the fair grounds. The main entrance of the fair was three feet deep in water. The damage was repaired by morning, and at 10:30 A. M., June 4, from what had been but a moment before clear sky, a tremendous downpour came, unaccompanied by any thunder and lightning. At noon of 5, the management announced the postponement of "Pike Day" until such time when exercises could include something besides aquatic sports.

KANSAS CITY.—At the Gillis Opera House (E. S. Brigrain, manager).—"The Moonshiner" closed the season at this house last week, to good business. Two extra performances were given June 5. AUDITORIUM (Woodward & Burgess Amusement Co., managers).—"The Woodward Stock Co. repeated its big production of 'Patriot' last week, to large and appreciative audiences. This closed the Woodward Stock season at the house, but on 5, Carleton Macey and Co., produce "Rip Van Winkle." If the weather permits the season will be extended. Electric Park (Sam Benjamin, manager).—"The rain interfered with business May 29, the opening day, but on Decoration Day the park was packed, and everybody enjoyed Liberator's band, and the new outside attractions. In the German village, Gillman and Murray, Earl Flier and Madge Matland were the entertainers.

FOREST PARK (Lloyd Brown, manager).—"In spite of the rain business was good at this popular park all last week. In Hopkings' Theatre the acts were: Staley and Birbeck Wilson and Heloise, Mme. Amaro, Agnes Lee McIntyre, Nichols Sisters, and Shenck Bros. On the lawn, Lingarella, the lady on the globe, was the attraction. This week the new ones will be: Geo. Wilson, L. J. and Taylor, Eike and Semon, Four Nelson Comiques, Steve Jennings, and Madame Amaro.

ST. JOSEPH.—At the Crystal Theatre (J. E. Jackson, manager) the season closed June 4.

CRYSTAL PARK (J. E. Jackson, manager).—"This resort, corner of Fourth and Faron Streets, opened June 5, with Lewis and Lake, Marshall and Ervin, Annette Moore, Le Clair and West, Frank Groh, Adams and Mack, and other good pictures. Crystal Park will have a seating capacity of 1,500, giving two shows each evening, at 8 and 9:30 o'clock. It will have an orchestra of twelve pieces.

CASINO THEATRE (E. P. Churchill, manager).—"This resort opened May 29 with the largest number of any previous opening. There were 3,500 people matinee and night. Decoration Day was beyond all former days. For week of June 5: Davis, McCauley & Co., Miller and Kresko, Billy Link, Leo and Chapman, and Willette Charette.

HOLDINGS (Col. Hopkins, manager).—"Week of 5 offers an excellent vaudeville bill, including: Mm. Mantell, who is one of St. Louis' favorites; Zoe Matthews, Clayton, Jenkins and Jasper, Martinetti and Grossi, and others. Lee Bloom, Jane Cooper and George Wilson were the headliners for last week. Big attendance was prevented by the many cool and rainy evenings, but still the balance must have been on the right side of the ledger for the week.

DELMA GARDEN (Col. Hopkins, manager).—"The premier production of another spectacular offering, and one also based on the incidents of the Louisiana Purchase, was here evening of May 29. There are many local favorites in the cast, the leading people in which are especially enjoyed. The offering made a distinctly good impression, and it seems as though both this and Kralffy's offering ought to do well. In spectacular effects it is excellent, and is graced with many pretty scenes, and a superb success. Lauret and Mr. Stewart were particularly well received. The cast includes, among others, Nettie Black, Atherton Furlong, Charles Humfeld, Franklin G. Hill, Maud Lambert, George Mack, Francis Thornton, Chase Mack, and others. Lee Bloom, Jane Cooper, W. P. Sissons, Will H. Sloan, Wm. Stewart and Grace Lillian Walser.

MANNION'S PARK (Archie M. Cox, manager).—"Attendance week of 29 was very good. The bill included: Mm. Morris, Morris, Kierulff and Cole, Tony Ryder's monkeys, Three Nudes, Dorsch and Russell, Mario and W. J. McDermott. Week of June 5 offers a clever vaudeville bill including Hugh Stanton and company, Arthur Rigby, Meelahn's dog, and other good specialties.

SIBERTON'S PARK (H. E. Rice, manager).—"Week of May 29 offered Le Roy and Le Vanlon, Bush and Gordon, Gladys Van, Leighton and Leighton, David Nowlin, and Bradys. Rather light attendance, but it will pick up with warm weather. A change of bill goes on week of 5.

ECLIPSE PARK (M. Pamberlain, manager).—"The stock company put on a four act drama, entitled 'The Girl of the Year,' week of May 29. It was fairly well attended. The personnel of the company follows: Miss Dunbar, Leon McReynolds, Wm. A. Tulley, Robert Hyman, Edward F. Clark, Ed. Lyons, E. J. Seem's, Harry Thompson, Harry Carver, and others. Marie De Trace and Little Helen Aycock.

BROADWAY MUSÉE (Paul Howse, manager).—"The curio hall here has closed for the Summer. The theatre will continue for an indefinite period with the double bill of 'Johnnie Myle,' Edna Tangay, and Jennie Womra were in the bill week of May 29.

HASHAGEN'S PARK.—The vaudeville bill here week of May 29 received fairly good patronage. Geo. D. Melville, Mamie Connelley, and other good acts were some who smiled over the footlights.

NOTES.—Manager Jannopoulo has put a tremendous amount of money in improving the grounds at Delmar. The special feature is the new colored fountain and the cascade. In the water runs across between the audience and the orchestra, falling over artificial cascades. His production of "Louisiana" was written by Hiram W. Hays, a new playwright, who comes out of the West, specifically, out of St. Louis. The music is by Wm. John Hall and Anton Heindl. Fritzi Schell will spend most of the Summer in St. Louis, where her husband, Baron von Bardelaben, has been as German military attaché to the fair. Manager Murphy, of the Irish Village on the Pike, had a touch of trouble last week when the Irish actors in the poetic drama then being offered struck. J. Dudley Jiggs and Gerald B. Ewing are no longer there, and Mary T. Quinn, Josephine Glynn, Patrick J. Kelly and C. O'Brien Caulfield will also close. Dick Ritchie, assistant treasurer of the Olympic, had a benefit at one performance of "A Country Girl" last week, that was well attended. Two St. Louis players home for their vacation are Laura Sawyer and Robert D. Cain.

John Ravald, of the "Ghosts" Co., is in town, visiting at his old home, at Abilene, Mich.

The St. Louis Players' Club gave a testimonial performance, 3, at Pickwick Theatre, for King Haggart, who has just returned home at the closing of the tour of "The Queen of the Highway."

Five distinct and terrific showers afternoon of June 3 stopped the car lines and flooded the fair grounds. The main entrance of the fair was three feet deep in water. The offering made a distinctly good impression, and it seems as though both this and Kralffy's offering ought to do well. In spectacular effects it is excellent, and is graced with many pretty scenes, and a superb success. Lauret and Mr. Stewart were particularly well received. The cast includes, among others, Nettie Black, Atherton Furlong, Charles Humfeld, Franklin G. Hill, Maud Lambert, George Mack, Francis Thornton, Chase Mack, and others. Lee Bloom, Jane Cooper, W. P. Sissons, Will H. Sloan, Wm. Stewart and Grace Lillian Walser.

MANNION'S PARK (Archie M. Cox, manager).—"Attendance week of 29 was very good. The bill included: Mm. Morris, Morris, Kierulff and Cole, Tony Ryder's monkeys, Three Nudes, Dorsch and Russell, Mario and W. J. McDermott. Week of June 5 offers a clever vaudeville bill including Hugh Stanton and company, Arthur Rigby, Meelahn's dog, and other good specialties.

SIBERTON'S PARK (H. E. Rice, manager).—"Week of May 29 offered Le Roy and Le Vanlon, Bush and Gordon, Gladys Van, Leighton and Leighton, David Nowlin, and Bradys. Rather light attendance, but it will pick up with warm weather. A change of bill goes on week of 5.

ECLIPSE PARK (M. Pamberlain, manager).—"The stock company put on a four act drama, entitled 'The Girl of the Year,' week of May 29. It was fairly well attended. The personnel of the company follows: Miss Dunbar, Leon McReynolds, Wm. A. Tulley, Robert Hyman, Edward F. Clark, Ed. Lyons, E. J. Seem's, Harry Thompson, Harry Carver, and others. Marie De Trace and Little Helen Aycock.

BROADWAY MUSÉE (Paul Howse, manager).—"The curio hall here has closed for the Summer. The theatre will continue for an indefinite period with the double bill of 'Johnnie Myle,' Edna Tangay, and Jennie Womra were in the bill week of May 29.

HASHAGEN'S PARK.—The vaudeville bill here week of May 29 received fairly good patronage. Geo. D. Melville, Mamie Connelley, and other good acts were some who smiled over the footlights.

NOTES.—Manager Jannopoulo has put a tremendous amount of money in improving the grounds at Delmar. The special feature is the new colored fountain and the cascade. In the water runs across between the audience and the orchestra, falling over artificial cascades. His production of "Louisiana" was written by Hiram W. Hays, a new playwright, who comes out of the West, specifically, out of St. Louis. The music is by Wm. John Hall and Anton Heindl. Fritzi Schell will spend most of the Summer in St. Louis, where her husband, Baron von Bardelaben, has been as German military attaché to the fair. Manager Murphy, of the Irish Village on the Pike, had a touch of trouble last week when the Irish actors in the poetic drama then being offered struck. J. Dudley Jiggs and Gerald B. Ewing are no longer there, and Mary T. Quinn, Josephine Glynn, Patrick J. Kelly and C. O'Brien Caulfield will also close. Dick Ritchie, assistant treasurer of the Olympic, had a benefit at one performance of "A Country Girl" last week, that was well attended. Two St. Louis players home for their vacation are Laura Sawyer and Robert D. Cain.

John Ravald, of the "Ghosts" Co., is in town, visiting at his old home, at Abilene, Mich.

The St. Louis Players' Club gave a testimonial performance, 3, at Pickwick Theatre, for King Haggart, who has just returned home at the closing of the tour of "The Queen of the Highway."

Five distinct and terrific showers afternoon of June 3 stopped the car lines and flooded the fair grounds. The main entrance of the fair was three feet deep in water. The damage was repaired by morning, and at 10:30 A. M., June 4, from what had been but a moment before clear sky, a tremendous downpour came, unaccompanied by any thunder and lightning. At noon of 5, the management announced the postponement of "Pike Day" until such time when exercises could include something besides aquatic sports.

KANSAS CITY.—At the Gillis Opera House (E. S. Brigrain, manager).—"The Moonshiner" closed the season at this house last week, to good business. Two extra performances were given June 5.

AUDITORIUM (Woodward & Burgess Amusement Co., managers).—"The Woodward Stock Co. repeated its big production of 'Patriot' last week, to large and appreciative audiences. This closed the Woodward Stock season at the house, but on 5, Carleton Macey and Co., produce "Rip Van Winkle." If the weather permits the season will be extended.

Electric Park (Sam Benjamin, manager).—"The rain interfered with business May 29, the opening day, but on Decoration Day the park was packed, and everybody enjoyed Liberator's band, and the new outside attractions. In the German village, Gillman and Murray, Earl Flier and Madge Matland were the entertainers.

FOREST PARK (Lloyd Brown, manager).—"In spite of the rain business was good at this popular park all last week. In Hopkings' Theatre the acts were: Staley and Birbeck Wilson and Heloise, Mm. Amaro, Agnes Lee McIntyre, Nichols Sisters, and Shenck Bros. On the lawn, Lingarella, the lady on the globe, was the attraction. This week the new ones will be: Geo. Wilson, L. J. and Taylor, Eike and Semon, Four Nelson Comiques, Steve Jennings, and Madame Amaro.

ST. JOSEPH.—At the Crystal Theatre (J. E. Jackson, manager) the season closed June 4.

CRYSTAL PARK (J. E. Jackson, manager).—"This resort, corner of Fourth and Faron Streets, opened June 5, with Lewis and Lake, Marshall and Ervin, Annette Moore, Le Clair and West, Frank Groh, Adams and Mack, and other good pictures. Crystal Park will have a seating capacity of 1,500, giving two shows each evening, at 8 and 9:30 o'clock. It will have an orchestra of twelve pieces.

CASINO THEATRE (E. P. Churchill, manager).—"This resort opened May 29 with the largest number of any previous opening. There were 3,500 people matinee and night. Decoration Day was beyond all former days. For week of June 5: Davis, McCauley & Co., Miller and Kresko, Billy Link, Leo and Chapman, and Willette Charette.

HOLDINGS (Col. Hopkins, manager).—"Week of 5 offers an excellent vaudeville bill, including: Mm. Mantell, who is one of St. Louis' favorites; Zoe Matthews, Clayton, Jenkins and Jasper, Martinetti and Grossi, and others. Lee Bloom, Jane Cooper and George Wilson were the headliners for last week. Big attendance was prevented by the many cool and rainy evenings, but still the balance must have been on the right side of the ledger for the week.

DELMA GARDEN (Col. Hopkins, manager).—"The premier production of another spectacular offering, and one also based on the incidents of the Louisiana Purchase, was here evening of May 29. There are many local favorites in the cast, the leading people in which are especially enjoyed. The offering made a distinctly good impression, and it seems as though both this and Kralffy's offering ought to do well. In spectacular effects it is excellent, and is graced with many pretty scenes, and a superb success. Lauret and Mr. Stewart were particularly well received. The cast includes, among others, Nettie Black, Atherton Furlong, Charles Humfeld, Franklin G. Hill, Maud Lambert, George Mack, Francis Thornton, Chase Mack, and others. Lee Bloom, Jane Cooper, W. P. Sissons, Will H. Sloan, Wm. Stewart and Grace Lillian Walser.

MANNION'S PARK (Archie M. Cox, manager).—"Attendance week of 29 was very good. The bill included: Mm. Morris, Morris, Kierulff and Cole, Tony Ryder's monkeys, Three Nudes, Dorsch and Russell, Mario and W. J. McDermott. Week of June 5 offers a clever vaudeville bill including Hugh Stanton and company, Arthur Rigby, Meelahn's dog, and other good specialties.

T. O. Tuttle writes: "I have just closed a very successful season with Lord's National Stock Co., and am at my home in Mina, Ark. I have signed with the Herbert Sprague Dramatic Co. for next season, as manager, and will soon be busily engaged in booking this attraction. Mr. Sprague is now in Chicago, securing new plays, purchasing scenery, etc. We will present nothing but royalty productions, and will carry special scenery for each, and will have one of the most complete repertory companies touring the South. Our company will number fifteen people, including myself, and will use nothing but special paper, twenty-two kinds having been already contracted for. Maude Street, late of the Landsdale Theatre Co., has been signed for leads. We expect to surround her and Mr. Sprague with a well used company, and will use for our motto: 'Dollar attractions at popular prices.'"

Bert Perry and Mae Crane joined the Laverna Stock Co. for the Summer season, to do their specialty and play general business.

Helene Relcka is playing the Ingenue in "The Climbers," with the Baldwin-Melville Stock Co., at Cleveland, O. Miss Relcka will be featured next season with the Osman-Hoyt Stock Co.

Elsie de Tourney, who will go out next season again in "Mary Stuart," Queen of Scots, and "Lucretia Borgia," is spending the Summer at St. Louis. She opens her eight season at St. Louis Sept. 5, under the management of E. G. Hinebaugh.

Charles Soares is engaged to play Chevalier de Vaudrey, in "The Two Orphans," at the Columbus Theatre (stock), Chicago.

Notes from the Harry Corson Clarke Co.: We closed our season of eleven months on June 1. We opened last July, in Sydney, N. S. W., Australia, at the Sydney Theatre, and at the end of the season, in the month of Nov. 15, we jumped to San Antonio, Tex., where we opened our "laughing season" of comedies, one a week, and every one a complete production. We were very successful, and played the balance of the season in three Texas cities—San Antonio, Houston and Dallas. Mr. Clarke, Mrs. Adele Clarke (his mother), Miss Owen and Mr. Lehmann are en route to St. Louis to visit the fair. Mr. Clarke has gone to New York, Miss Ketcham, to Chicago, Mrs. Orr and James Orr, to Cincinnati; Miss Weller, to Grand Rapids. Jack Macauley has joined Wallace's Circus, and A. Garfield, business manager, to St. Louis.

Mrs. "Aunt" Ella Martin, who conducted a theatrical boarding house in Baltimore, Md., and was well known in the profession, died in that city on May 29, from pneumonia.

NOTES FROM BARNUM & BAILEY'S SHOW.—The championship ball game between the musicians and performers, played at Saginaw, Mich., June 3, resulted in a score of 16 to 0 in favor of the musicians thus proving that the members of the Barnum & Bailey show are as good ball players as well as music. It may be added that these results might have been different if Archie Marvel, of the performers, had "remained in the first class" and had not been a "second class" musician, won distinction on the pitcher's slab. "Bill" Sawyer's home run, from a fly, over the cook house, bringing in three men, was the only home run of the day. The "root" tickets were sold at a very low price. A notable event of the game was the "death" of "Silvers" Oakley, of the performers, on the field. The big game between the "freaks" and performers will be held at the Exposition grounds, on Thurs. next.

GUS BANKS and WIFE, of Providence, visited Sig. Santell's Circus at Warren, R. I., last week, and were most royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Santell. They are one of the largest and best shows under canvas and are doing an excellent business.

NEW YORK CITY.

Review and Comment.—The end of last week marked the closing of a number of indoor amusement resorts, and of those remaining open at least three are booked to close their doors at an early date. The rainy weather the fore part of the week, and the warm temperature the closing days, was not favorable to big business, but good average attendance was the rule. At PROCTOR'S FIFTY-EIGHTH STREET THEATRE a season of Summer opera was inaugurated, with "The Fortune Teller" as the opening bill. The houses closing June 4 were: BRASCO'S, WALLACK'S, the SAVOY, the MURRAY HILL and THIRD AVENUE THEATRES, the METROPOLIS, MINER'S EIGHTH AVENUE, MINER'S BOWERY and HURTIQ & SEAMON'S HARLEM MUSIC HALL. The continued attractions for the week ending June 4 were: "Piff! Paff! Puff!" at the CASINO, Raymond Hitchcock, in "The Yankee Consul," at the BROADWAY; Willie Collier at the CRITERION, De Wolf Hopper at the LYRIC, Summer opera at PROCTOR'S FIFTY-EIGHTH STREET, "The Southerners" at the NEW YORK, the J. S. Duss Orchestra at the MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, "Til for Tat" at the SAVOY, "The County Chairman" at WALLACK'S, "Sweet Kitty Bellairs" at BRASCO'S, and the stock company at the MURRAY HILL. The last four named closing at that date. The one week stands closing 4 were: "From Hags to Riches" at the GRAND OPERA HOUSE, "Resurrection" at the WEST END, "Two Little Sailor Boys" at the METROPOLIS, and "Escaped from Sing Sing" at the STAR. Variety entertainment was furnished at TONY PASTOR'S, KEITH'S UNION SQUARE, PROCTOR'S TWENTY-THIRD STREET, the VICTORIA, the CIRCLE, the DEWEY, MINER'S EIGHTH AVENUE and the GOTHAM. HUBER'S MUSEUM presented the usual long list of curios, freaks and vaudeville.

Aerial Gardens. A beautifully arranged elevated place of amusement, on top of the New Amsterdam Theatre, opened evening of Monday, June 6, with a program of vaudeville entertainment, called "A Little of Everything," by John J. McNally. It was given its first production on that date, and during the three acts which were required to round out the work many catchy songs, some funny lines and delightful work by the company proved ample compensation for a visit to the gardens. That the plot was microscopic did not matter very much, since the audience was afforded the chance to applaud some of the favorites, and the beauty of the place itself was well worth a visit. The evening was ideal for roof gardening, and the result was that crowds of prospective purchasers of admission were turned from the box office. There are many pretty little nooks and corners in the rustic arrangements of the gardens, and a stroll through the walks is well worth the while. Cordial receptions were given Fay Templeton, Peter Dalley, Joseph Sparks, Lella McIntyre, George Schiller, Susie Fisher and Sabel Johnson, and all did work which reflected great credit upon them. Miss Templeton, artistic as ever, gave a turn all her own to the singing of several pleasing songs, and her work was repeatedly encored. Mr. Dalley was funny, as he always is, and Lella McIntyre also secured a decided success. The cast: John Edward Haggerty, Joseph Sparks; Benjamin Franklin Perkins, George Schiller; John Cortright Muggs, Harry Kelly; Bert Hight, Allan Ramsay; Harry Lowe, Charles Hesong; Billy Harrington, Peter F. Dalley; Lillian Maye, Lella McIntyre; Ivy Stringham, Sabel Johnson; Daisy Bovine, Susie Fisher; Bessie Perkins, Charlotte Leslay; Della Haggerty, Elnora Snowden; Mrs. Aurora Daye-Knight, Fay Templeton.

Hammerstein's Paradise Roof Garden. on top of the Victoria and Belasco theatres, was opened Monday evening, June 6, with a strong list of vaudeville performers and a strong list of musical acts, by Oscar Hammerstein, called "Paradise," in one act. This purported to burlesque "Herr Siegfried," Wagner's attempt to gain permission from Frau Wagner to produce "Paradise," then refused, and then his further attempt, in which he is thwarted by the Genius of Music, to give the opera. It proved simply a frame for vaudeville features, and during its progress Emma Carus and Eleanor Falk were conspicuously successful, and were warmly applauded, while some capital feats by the Gash Sisters, acrobats, and impersonations of noted composers and conductors, by Willy Zimmerman, were meritorious features. Mr. Zimmerman made his debut in this country June 6. Rita Valentine, who has been with Charles Richards and a big chorus and ballet assisted in "Paradise." The programme was begun by Al. Waltz, whose grace and skill on skates was commendable. The Sunny South Plantation, colored boys' band, about thirty, followed, and played a lot of Southern melodies. Others were: Rice and Prevost, clever burlesquers; Charles T. Aldrich, in his well known and remarkably entertaining act; Young and De Vole, who received much applause for their dancing by note; and Paul Spadoni, whose juggling has many daring and novel features, and whose act throughout was greatly liked.

Circle Theatre. (Percy G. Williams, manager).—While the present theatrical season is nearly at its end, the popularity of our city theatres have closed for the summer, the cozy Circle still continues to cater to an excellent business. It is pleasant to chronicle the success of a liberal and enterprising manager in the theatrical life, and Mr. Williams deserves all the success that has come to him in his management along those lines. His patrons have witnessed the very cream of vaudeville top notches, and their pleasure has served also to his profit in bringing the theatre to a sound financial basis. Charles Hawtree is closing his city vaudeville engagements with his appearance here this week in his comedy, "Times is Money," of which we have spoken in these columns during the past two weeks. Supported by the same efficient cast, he is easily duplicating his success at other city theatres. The bill this week also engages the following excellent acts: Mark Sullivan, in his clever imitations of prominent people; Teschow's cats, an example of remarkable animal training; the Misses Delmore, musical act; Raymond and Caverly, German comedians; Mosher, Houghton and Mosher, bicycle experts; Tenbrooke, Lambert and Tenbrooke, presenting Schnitzel's Academy; Rita Redmond, vocalist; Paul Stephens, equilibrist, and the vitagraph.

New York Theatre. (Klaw & Erlanger, managers).—"The Southerners" opened its third week June 6.

Criterion Theatre. (Charles Frohman, manager).—William Collier, in "The Dictator," entered upon his tenth week June 6.

Atlantic Garden. (W. Kramer's Sons, managers).—Morella Brothers, acrobats; Willis and Collins, in a comedy sketch; Adams and Curtis, character comedians; Mlle. Adele, in a novel variety act; Marie Laurent, operatic vocalist; the Two Demers, comedy acrobats; and the Little Lady Orchestra are the attractions for this week.

Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre. (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—S. Miller Kent is the stock star this week and next at this house, and on Monday, June 6, he was assisted by the house company in the unfolding of the Fitch play in which he has been starring successfully on the road for several seasons past—"The Cowboy and the Lady." Mr. Kent's work was very much to the liking of the audience, and his success was emphatic. His forceful manner and dramatic reading of the lines made his acting most interesting. Lotta Linthicum gave him capital aid, as did George Bryant, William Hawley, Loretta Healy and the others of the support. The cast: Teddy North (Harvard '90), S. Miller Kent; Billy Ransom (Harvard '90), William Hawley; Weston, George Bryant; Quick Foot Jim, Benj. Bradbury; Joe, Hapley Holmes; Pete, W. D. Market; Dave, George Howell; Judge, Chas. J. Burbridge; Foreman of Jury, Fred Huntley; Sheriff, Harry Walton; Second Sheriff, George Dixon; Dick Rod, Francis Glyndon; District Attorney, J. B. Malcomb; Molly Larkins, Lillian Buckingham; Mrs. Weston, Lotta Linthicum; Midge, Loretta Healy; Misses, Lillian Buckingham; Mrs. Carter, Frank Miller; Miss Larrabee, Margaret Kirker; Clerk, Leo Hawley. In the vaudeville bill were Mathews and Ashley, in their spirited offering, "Money Mad," which duplicated the success it had recently at the Proctor houses; Jerome Meredith and company, in a rural comedy sketch, which went well, and in which two children, a boy and a girl, danced in a dainty and clever manner; Laura Bennett, in the comedy of "The County Chairman," monologue; Spencer Kelly, whose singing is always enjoyable; Emerson and Stone, juggling comedians; McGrath Brothers, banjoists; the St. Claire Sisters, in a singing specialty, and Master George, in a singing and dancing. The vaudeville bill continued.

Proctor's Fifty-eighth Street Theatre. (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—The second week of the Summer season of comic opera opened Monday, June 6, with another success made famous by Alice Nielsen—"The Singing Girl." A well rendered singing heard to advantage in the title role character, her efforts being ably seconded by the following competent cast: Duke Rudolph, Edward Metcalfe; Count Otto, George Tenney; Prince Pumpernickel, Robert Lett; Antipassio, Herman Hirschberg; Stephen, James J. Devlin; Frederick, James Feeney; Francis, Harry Turpin; Felix, Russell Wakefield; Karl, J. J. McDonald; Ludwig, Walter Halbach; Ferdinand, E. J. O'Neill; Marie, Elida Munstons; Elsa, Gladys Gifford; Mrs. Brown, Alma, Lott Schulz; Elizabeth, Cella Ward; Margaret, Jeanette Reid; Katrina, Dixie Crane; Grete, the Singing Girl, Blanche Adams. The musical of "The Singing Girl" was well rendered by both principals and chorists, and the scenic and scenic appropriate. The auditorium was well filled both afternoon and evening, and that the rendition of the piece afforded satisfaction was abundantly proven by the applause liberally bestowed. The evening concert was well rendered, which was more conducive to visits to the seashore than attendance at indoor amusements. Next week, "The Wedding Day" will be the attraction offered.

Keith's Theatre. (E. F. Albee, general manager).—Monday, June 6, found assembled here a fair majority of the loyal clientele of this theatre who had braved the intense heat of the day, tempted by one of the best bills offered here in many weeks. The thing that can possibly conduce to the comfort of their guests had been done by the management, in the way of exhaust and electric fans, and the temperature of the house was many degrees cooler than that of the street, and the heat was not a hindrance. The excellent bill this week, presenting their popular skit, "The Man from Montana," and these stars of black face comedy scored their usual happy success. Edwin Stevens, in his original "The Man from Montana," was as successful along entirely different lines, and he likewise must be credited with an auspicious Monday opening; Ethel Levey, in songs, easily sustained her reputation as one of the best singing comedienne; Burton Egan, in a good long comedy sketch, "A Can of Humor," Taffery's performing dogs did an act almost approaching the marvelous; Bailey and Madison, as the funny eccentrics, cleverly filled their allotted time; Lillian Maye and Sabel Johnson, in their singing and dancing act, "A Political Pull," gained their usual favor and applause; Frenclill and Lewis presented their novel comedy and vocal act, "The Ballyhoo," one of the best things of the bill; the "Theatricals," a strong feature of the bill, and West, in a rural sketch; La Veen and Cross, physical culture experts; Ed and Nettie Masse, comedy jugglers; Barto and Lafferty, singing and dancing duo, and the biograph are included in the bill for this week. The "Theatricals" (Tony Pastor, manager).—Monday, June 6, was the first scorching hot day of the summer, but a good number of Manager Pastor's patrons filled their accustomed places, and in anticipation of enjoying a good long comedy sketch, they were to forge the extreme heat as to the programme. It was admirably adapted for not weather purposes, being replete with hilarious comedy, and songs and dances well calculated to tempt a laugh or applause. Dewey Theatre. (Sullivan & Kraus, managers).—Miner's Bohemian Burlesquers began a return engagement here at the matinee of June 6. The theatre was packed at the opening performance. The audience applauded all the principal numbers of "A Bohemian Beauty," with Fred Law, Robert Higgins, Louise Amber and Ida Nicolai as the principals. Next week, the Tiger Lillies.

People's Theatre. "The Peddler," with Samuel Thornberg in the title role, is the concluding attraction of the season. The supporting cast is apportioned as follows: Sammy Jacobson, Alfred Mayo; Chuck Connors, Ed. Lawrence; Uncle Jason, Dave Posner; Charlotte, Wynette, John J. Pierson; Edward Morgan, Louis Hartman; Sergt. Pat McCann, John Morrissey; Dr. George Aub, Richard Brandon; Salome Wyandotte, May Noble; Sarah Goldberg, Jeanette Alexander; Lizzie Barclay, Nina Harrington; Lila, Mary Frances McGrath. After June 11 the house will be closed until Aug. 1, when Sullivan, Harris & Woods' attractions will open it for three weeks.

Lyric Theatre. (Sam S. & Lee Shubert, managers).—"De Wolf Hopper," in "Wang," opened his eighth week June 6. Madge Lessing has left the company, and Julia Sanderson is now playing Mataya. She is doing excellent work in the role.

Madison Square Garden.—In "Beautiful Conco," S. Duss uses as a setting for himself and his Metropolitan Orchestra, is now in its third week.

Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre. (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—William H. Thompson, another star set in Mr. Proctor's galaxy, recently from the circuits, in the legitimate stage, made his vaudeville debut at Proctor's One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre afternoon of Monday, June 6, and appeared at this house later. He presented Clay M. Greene's comedy, called "For Love's Sweet Sake," which was given for the first time at the Actors' Fund benefit last winter. His scene is laid in the home of Sanford Morgan, a banker, at Christmas Eve. The son, James, is welcomed home by Morgan, and during the course of their conversation the father learns that the son is accused of criminal business transactions, and has confessed to his accuser. But it develops that James has sacrificed his honor to save the woman he formerly loved, but who is now the wife of the man who really committed the crime. Morgan is at first furious at the thought of the threatened stain upon his good name, but eventually the nobility of his son's action forces itself upon him, and from the ordinary and most interesting course, takes him once more to his heart, and promises his aid in attempting to free him. The work was well written and interesting, and Mr. Thompson played his role with convincing fervor, and those artistic touches which make his work so well received. His reception was a cordial one. Richard L. Neill did quite well as the son. The work was cast as follows: Sanford Morgan, William H. Thompson; James Morgan, Richard Neill; John Lifford, Harry Lifford; Mercurio Nicholas, Harry Lifford; Executive staff for Mr. Thompson: W. E. Burlock, manager; Harry Lifford, stage manager; Wright Huntington and company, in "A Stand Off," entertained most agreeably. Mr. Thompson's playing holding close attention and deserving warm commendation, and the little play proving a worthy offering. Joseph Yarrick and his "Magic Kettle" are held over for another week, which speaks well for the strength of the bill, which is very far from the ordinary and most interesting and mystifying throughout. The St. Onge Brothers did some remarkably dexterous feats on cycles, and were deserving of the most fervidly expressed favor, for their act proved of unusual merit from start to finish. Thes Westman and Lily Wren, presenting "In Haylin' Time," brought themselves into pleasing prominence by some excellent work, and were responsible for decided pleasure during their time on view. Oscar Hammerstein, in his original comedy, gave his Hiawatha parody, in costume, to the accompaniment of much laughter, and Bennett and Rich gave "The German Recruit," an entertaining conception, to greatly satisfied audience. The bill was well rounded out by the well known comic singer, (Clarke and Temple, in "Front and the Chamberlain"; Malcolm Shackelford, banjoist and humorist; Smith and Baker, in comedy singing and dancing; Walter Daniels, in impromptu sketches; and the vaudeville bill continued.

Broadway Theatre. (A. W. Dingwall, manager).—Raymond Hitchcock, in "The Yankee Consul," opened his sixteenth week June 6. The Wednesday matinees at the Broadway Theatre have been discontinued for the rest of the season.

Huber's Museum. (John H. Anderson, manager).—The Huber Museum, an aerial performance, tops an excellent bill in the circuit all here this week. Others are: John Alexander, Madame Meyers, Stanley, Wusner, Huber, and Madame De Bonnier. In the theatre are: A. F. Carroll, the Forests, the Debonairs, Lillian Kelly, Birch and company, May Hoey, Chas. Van, Bros. Barrett, and the Hanoovers. Business is still big at every performance.

Grand Opera House. (John H. Springer, manager).—"The Black Mask" is the current offering.

Law Fields. Fred R. Hamlin, Julian Mitchell and Oscar Hammerstein signed an agreement last week, by the terms of which the new playhouse, being built by Oscar Hammerstein, in West Forty-second Street, will be at the disposal of Hamlin, Mitchell & Fields. Instead of being called the National Theatre, it will be called the Law Fields Theatre, and will be given up to the most distinguished theatrical extravaganza of "The Wizard of Oz" and "Babes in Toyland" type, and burlesques such as Weber & Fields used to present at their music hall. Mr. Hamlin said that the new theatre would not be opened until after the season of the old theatre, and it will be the star at the house, and the librettists will probably be Edgar Smith and Glen MacDonough. The firm expects that Victor Herbert will write much of the music.

TOM GILLEN, FINNIGAN'S FRIEND.

PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) INQUIRER, Sunday, June 5.—A hitherto undiscovered successor to the late J. W. Kelly was unearthed at the Trocadero during the week. He is TOM GILLEN, who in manner and dialect so closely resembles the famous Irish Comedian as to be almost a counterpart. Gillen has been trouping out a short while, and has devoted his talents to entertaining ruralities chiefly. His engagement here was his first real big one, and he was so favorably received that he has already received mastering offers from vaudeville managers. His work is of that quality which is indifferently entertaining. His stories are of fresh vintage, and are all woven around an imaginary friend, "Finnigan."
He received many curtain calls during his engagement here, and I am safe in predicting a successful future for him, providing, of course, he does not fall into the rut which has tripped up so many clever fellows. PASTANG PARK, HARRISBURG, PA., JUNE 6.

World of Players.

Notes from "A Chicago Tramp." Co.: We closed our season at Sycamore, Ill., May 21, and can proudly boast of a truly phenomenal season, having covered considerable territory, after several other "tramp" shows, to capacity, and almost every stand, and a majority of the stands played this season gladly booked the attraction for next season. Our time is almost all filled now for next season. Olga Schmitt De Baugh gave a banquet at Hotel Zeke, after our closing performance, which was very elaborate, and highly enjoyed, there being a few professional friends present, including members of the staff of Manager Fred Raymond, who, by the way, made our engagement at this house very pleasant. The entire company came to Chicago, and after a few days of shopping and rest will go to their homes. Almost the entire company has signed again for next season. "The universal verdict of the entire company is: 'We never had a more pleasant engagement, or received better treatment from any manager than from W. C. De Baugh.'"

Mrs. Leslie Carter, accompanied by David Belasco and the entire "Du Barry" organization of one hundred and eighteen people, left last week for an extended tour of three months, which will take Mrs. Carter to all the important cities in the far West, and bring to a conclusion her third and last season in "Du Barry." The season will close about Aug. 1, and Mrs. Carter will then go to her home at Shetland Island. After a month of quiet she will then turn her attention to the new play in which David Belasco will present her at the Belasco Theatre, New York, during next winter.

Margaret Anglin will star next season in "The Eternal Feminine," by Robert Misch. The English version arranged for Miss Anglin will be played in Paris and London at the same time it is presented in this country.

Melie H. Norton writes: "I have signed for next season with Fred Raymond, to manage his 'Old Arkansas' Co. During the past five seasons I have been general manager of Fitz & Webster's 'A Breezy Time' companies."

Stanislav Stange has finished the new opera in which Fritz Schell will star next season. It is to be called "The Queen of Hearts." Ludwig Engländer will compose the music.

"John Henry" will be rewritten by Geo. V. Hobart, and the play will again be presented next season by Felix Isman. Frank L. Perley will manage the tour.

W. E. Wilson, father of Chas. D. Wilson, manager of the Ward & Vokes Co., died at his home in Seattle, Wash., Monday, May 30, aged fifty. The main line circuit of theatres, from Sarina to Montreal, Can., is under the management of Thos. J. Naylor. The circuit includes Sarina, Petrolia, Strathroy, St. Mary's, London, Ingersoll, St. Thomas, Chatham, Dresden, Ridgeway, Ridgeway, Simcoe, Dunnville, Welland, Preston, Penetang, Midland, Whitby, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Port Hope, Cobourg, Brighton, Trenton, Campbellford, Picton, Deseronto, Napanee, Gananoque, Smith Falls, Carleton Place, Amherst, Renfrew, Pembroke, Perth and Tweed.

Notes from the Doremus Comedy Co.: We opened our Summer season at Hope, N. J., May 20, to big business. We carry a company of twenty people, and have eight pieces. We have a repertoire of six standard plays, for which we carry all special scenery. Our vaudeville includes: Edison moving picture machine, "Nigger," the educated dog; Frank M. Weeks, janglest, luck and wile; Leon Kearns, "bun" shouter; Bill Binks, "bun" jangler; Verona, fire dancer, and Galtier Sherman, black face. Executive staff: George Doremus, owner; Wm. H. Swettager, business manager; Bill Binks, stage manager; Smith, property; Mrs. Frank Switzer, advance, and Marie Doremus, leader of orchestra.

Notes from Grand Valley Park, Brantford, Ont.: The stock company opened its second season here May 23, in "Monte Cristo." Victoria Day, 24, sundays were turned away, and business was very good the rest of the week. Only standard dramas will be produced, with a change of bill weekly. Frank P. Haven closed with "For His Brother's Crime" Co., at Montreal, May 14, and assumed the management of the above resort. Following is the list of people engaged: Frank London, H. E. Humphrey, John M. Hamilton, Fred J. Willard, Frank Condon, Ed. S. Thompson, Harry Reeves, Leslie Palmer, Edna Earle London, Margaret Hatch, Julia Wray, Delphine Kearns, Mrs. Frank London, John E. Kelly, late of "Across the Pacific" Co., joined 30, to play the leading comedy roles. Margaret Hatch was taken seriously ill 26, and is at the hospital in a dangerous condition. The above was taken by Mrs. Frank London. Julia Hurley joined 30, for characters. This is Manager Haven's second season here. Oil and gas have been discovered in this vicinity, and Brantford is enjoying a boom.

Notes from Tom Marks Stock Co.: We closed our season of thirty-eight weeks at Kingston, Ontario, May 14. The season was a successful one, the company playing to capacity everywhere. We opened our Summer season at Lindsay, May 17, and have been doing our usual business. Tom Marks has been entertained along the line by his old friends, also the company has been entertained with boating and fishing parties. Our trip is up the lakes through the most beautiful Summer resorts. Every one is looking forward to a delightful Summer outing.

Notes from the Rho Lorraine Co.: We opened a week's engagement at the opera house at Saranac Lake, N. Y., on Monday evening. Standing room was at a premium, the house being virtually sold out before the opening of the doors. Miss Lorraine has appeared here before, and the excellent reputation she left was in itself a sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the performance, which was to be given, nor was the audience disappointed in their anticipation of a dramatic treat. "An American Hero" was the play selected for the opening.

Ned Nelson writes: "I recently closed thirty-nine successful weeks with Chas. K. Campbell's Co., and have signed with Chas. & Young's Merry Makers Co. for the Summer season."

The opera house at Yazoo City, Miss., was destroyed on May 25 by a fire which laid the greater part of the city in ashes.

Marie Davis writes that she has not joined the National Stock Co. at Winnipeg, but is at her home, Milwaukee, Wis., with her husband, Harry Hamilton.

Henry Leitner's Empire Stock Co. opened at Minneapolis, Minn., Saturday, May 28, with Merril De Soto's musical burlesque, "Pirate Island," which is full of rollicking frivolity, to a packed house, the production taking with the audience like wild-fire. This play has been making the public talk the whole country over for the past season, and is under the personal direction of Merril De Soto, the author. The cast has been well selected, and Manager Leitner has spared neither time or money in securing his people, and has the best procurable. The chorus is composed of "English Daisies." "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home" and "Hoity Toity" girls, while the principals are selected from the largest extravaganza in the country. The show is strong and well put together in every particular, and full of genuine, neat, up-to-date comedy. The roster: Chas. Hamon, Geo. P. Watson, Marguerite Newton, Hammond and Forrester, Mae Melhane, La-dell and Collins, Mulvey and Cross, Jessie Livingston, Merril De Soto, director, who has had "Pirate Island" on the road for the past season, and as soon as the run here is ended will continue on to the Pacific coast.

Notes of Lonsdale Theatre Co., Hal B. Barber, proprietor and manager: The Summer season opens June 15. Mr. Barber received so many answers to his CLIPPER ad that it is impossible to answer all. Over five hundred and thirty letters were handed him, besides telegrams. He has selected a company of fourteen people and three vaudeville acts. Mr. Barber went to Chicago June 2, to select plays and scenery. The season is opening financially bright, and Mr. Barber will have the best company he has had in his four years on the road.

Notes from the Maude Henderson Co.: Our week of May 29, at South Haven, Mich., proved very successful, breaking all records of any repertory company that ever visited the city. We made many friends during our stay. The roster is as follows: Joseph Parant, manager; J. N. Vidder, business manager; E. N. Primrose, Walter Thompson, Hall Dalton, Felix Fatus, P. G. Primrose, Aileen Adams, Grace Childers, Bernice Arnold and Maude Henderson. All are enjoying good health.

Notes from the Hunt Stock Co.: We are now in our forty-third week of continued success, with the show booked solid until November. Business, with few exceptions, has been all that could be asked for. We have had a very little sickness, everybody is happy, and the show goes like clock work. Master Jack Fitzgibbon joined May 30, to do his specialty, and at once met with success. This is our second week at Alpena, Mich., and full houses are the rule. The members of the company who are followers of Isaac Walton have had great sport since we have been in Northern Michigan, the home of the wild trout, and some nice catches have been brought in. We have more work in the lower peninsula, than we cross the straits for the Summer. Will stay in the North until about Sept. 1, then we go to the Southern part of the State for some very desirable dates.

Notes from the New German Lilliputian Co.: We closed our season May 24, and business was beyond expectation. We opened Oct. 1 and never missed a night or canceled a date, including Christmas and Holy Week. Manager J. U. Tschudi brought the company to St. Louis, where the people are now taking in the big show, after which they will visit home and friends for a while. With the exception of a few of the old people, all have been re-engaged, and he has eight new comedies with the company. After a short visit they will return to St. Louis to rehearse for next season. Gustavus Simon has been engaged to act as treasurer, and J. U. Tschudi, proprietor, will personally advance the show this season.

Florence Leslie Preston has been engaged by David Belasco to play a prominent role in "The Darling of the Gods," opening with the World's Fair engagement at St. Louis, early in August, and continuing during the season. She is spending the Summer in Albany, where she may make occasional appearances with one of the stock companies now playing that city, but she will come to New York early in July to begin preliminary rehearsals for her season with Mr. Belasco.

Notes from the Rodney Stock Co.: We are doing a nice business. Following is our roster: G. Bert Rodney, manager; William Lawrence, stage manager; Chas. Rose, master of props; W. A. McDowell, George Barrette, Francis Conlan, Chas. Rose, Chas. Fitzgerald, Clyde B. Callicotte, Mack Gliden, William Lawrence, G. Bert Rodney, Blanche Rose, Florence Hamilton, Marie Wolfe, Nellie Beatrice, Clara Sherman, Vane Calvert, Palmer Kellogg, business manager. Our specialties are: Nellie Beatrice, fire dancer; Three Golden Sisters (Myrtle, Blanche and Nellie); W. A. McDowell, illustrated songs; Chas. Rose, Hebrew impersonator, and Vane Calvert, vocalist. Our repertory: "The Convict's Story," "My Daughter's Husband," "The True Kentuckian," "Colorado," "Michael Strogoff," "The Ohio Kid," "An Oath of Vengeance," "Lost and Won," and "Siege of the Alamo." We received over one hundred letters in answer to our CLIPPER ad. Geo. M. Cohan will sail for Europe immediately after the close of the season of the Four Cohans. Mr. Cohan will remain abroad until the commencement of rehearsals for "Little Johnny Jones," his latest musical play, in which he will star next season. His interests will be looked after by Chas. C. Stumm, who will direct the tour of the company.

James K. Hackett has secured the dramatic rights of Mary King's novel, "The Debonaire," and her husband, W. A. Farquhar Payson, will dramatize it.

Notes from Beggs Stock Co.: Owing to the fact that Terry McGovern is matched to box Eddie Hanton on or before July 15, he has postponed his engagement with this company until the last week in July. The following people have been engaged: Carl Stockdale, J. J. Owens, Lester Leyburn, Rollo Lloyd, Thomas Daly, F. E. Stockdale, Garrett Campbell, Helen Gordon, Ethel Everett, Mrs. J. J. Owens and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beggs, including the mascot, Baby Beggs. We opened at Crescent Park, Providence, R. I., June 12, for twelve weeks.

F. E. Berquist, proprietor of the Auditorium, Galesburg, Ill., writes: "At a meeting held at the Great Northern Hotel, Chicago, May 29, steps were taken for organizing the Northern Illinois circuit of theatres, to consist of Galesburg, Streator, Ottawa, Joliet, Elgin, Aurora and Kewanee, all uniformly good show towns. A meeting will be held at Aurora, Ill., June 8, to perfect permanent organization."

Bertha Dalrymple has signed with the new American Stock Co., of Chicago, for the coming season.

Joe Thayer, after closing twelve weeks with the Fenberg Stock Co. at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 21, went immediately to Lebanon, N. H., to join the J. C. Rockwell Co. for the Summer.

Notes from the National Stock Co.: This organization, formerly under the management of Host & West, is now owned and controlled by Wm. Freeland, who is also manager of the Durham Opera House and Casino, at Lakewood Park, Durham, N. C. The company is a strong one, and is doing good business. The roster is as follows: Wm. Mantel, stage director; Fritz Adams, late of the "Why Women Sin" Co.; Chas. J. III, James Smith, Ed. Delle, Bessie Morton, Catherine Hadley, Mae Mantel. A recent addition to the company is Frank L. Frame, formerly with the "The Great Marston Scenarion."

The Garrick Theatre, Atlantic City, N. J., will present first class musical comedies and farce comedies. The house has been rebuilt, and is thoroughly modern in all details. Armand T. Nichols is the manager.

Samuel & Harshard will manage the Summer tour of Harry La Marr, in the three act, natural comedy, "New England Folks." They will play seven weeks of one night stands, carrying twelve people, and opening the season in Massachusetts, July 1. The tour will include New York, Ohio, Indiana and New York. Mr. La Marr will play a repertory of four plays: "The Gold Dust Twins," "New England Folks" and "Mrs. Josiah Allen," and for matinees "The Delectable Food."

Notes from Lee's Comedians: We are playing to good business in Northern New York, and making many new friends. We are well known in this part of the State, having played the same towns for the past years. Francis Nelson, two new plays, "A Spy of Port Arthur" and "In the Shadow of a Crime," are great successes. Our roster is as follows: Harry T. Lee, Wm. H. Govey, Henry L. Barker, George P. Randall, Samuel Hines, Herbert Langford, Frank Lott, Leah Rad-erick, Estelle Plunkett, Lila Plunkett, Beatrice Arthur and Master Robert Nelson.

Manager Clinton writes: "I am arranging to put in Summer stock at Exposition Park, D. C., during the coming season. I found it to be another Coney Island, and consider myself fortunate in having secured the same. I contemplate improving the big Summer theatre, and will employ a clever artist to restore the scenery. We hope to insure popularity by aiming to properly present the class of plays which will appeal to the wealthy Summer residents of the lake, as well as the influx from surrounding villages, and the city of Meadville. Have secured the rights to several new society plays, in which Cora Lawton Mitchell (our star) will appear. What with boating, fishing, bathing and two bills a week, I expect to profitably pass a delightful Summer. Joe C. Gregg, our business manager three seasons ago, is returning to the company this Summer. Lora Claire Whitaker, our musical directress, will also be with us again."

Katie Emmett writes from St. Louis: "I am enjoying the fair thoroughly. I am negotiating with the Village managers, with the idea of putting on a Killarney for the Summer. Next season I expect to go out under the management of a well known St. Louis manager, in 'Waifs of New York,' brought thoroughly up to date, with new scenery, printing and a company surpassed by none."

Maybelle Leach has been re-engaged by Ernest Lamson to play her original part in "Young Tobe Hoxie" next season. Mr. Lamson will not open his season until after election.

Morris Smith has joined the Carner Stock Co., at Buckhoe Beach, Hampton, Va., to do comedy parts and specialties, this being his second Summer season with the company. Notes from the Stone Hill Theatre Stock, at Peoria, Ill.: Business up to the present writing (our seventh week) has been big, capacity business not being unusual, and from all indications it promises to be the banner season at this popular resort. Roster is as follows: Horace V. Nible, Sam'l D. Merrill, Chas. T. Hart, Joe C. Berry, Tessie Lorraine, Gertrude Gilbert, Mae Evelynne and Kate Stride Berry. Harry Andrews, carpenter and scenic artist. The company is under the personal direction of Nelson Compton. Manager Frank Gray says that it is the most evenly balanced and strongest company he ever had in his theatre.

L. F. Marbury writes that the Ruston Opera House, at Ruston, La., has been engaged, in answer to our CLIPPER ad, and sends scenery put in. It will be open for attractions by Sept. 1.

The Fenberg Stock Co. closed a successful season May 21, at Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Manager Fenberg will have one of the best repertory companies touring New England next season. As heretofore, he will carry three feature specialty acts, new plays, scenery, etc. Among the members retained were: Will J. Kennedy, the clever comedian; Eugene Baker, Forest and Lawrence, the Carrays, Russell and Buckley, Niddon Brothers, Mlle. De Lome, Lizzie Snyder, the vltagraph.

NOTES.—Pauline West, daughter of Charles D. Stickey, a well known local lawyer of this city, is Summering here and assumed last week the leading juvenile role in "Johnston Flood," at the Lyceum. This talented actress appeared to advantage last season in Soto's "The Proud Prince," also in "The County Chairman." "The Crystal Beach" season is again in full swing. "The Tecks" last attraction, Red Feather, proved a very pretty offering, and Grace Van Stadford scored finely. That house, together with the Academy and Lyceum, are now dark for the Summer. HERE'S A PLUM FOR CLEVER SINCERS.

THE MOST NOVEL SONG HIT OF THE YEAR. A CATCHY CONCEPTION BASED ON ORIGINALITY.

You Mustn't Pick Plums FROM My Plum-Tree

Lyrics by ARTHUR J. LAMB.

Melody by ALBERT Von TILZER.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having severed my connections with the HARRY VON TILZER MUSIC PUB. CO., I beg to announce to all my friends that I shall be pleased to hear from them, either personally or by mail, at my new place of business,
THE YORK MUSIC CO., 40 West 28th St.
 I have all ready on hand a clever selection of BALLADS, COON and NOVELTY SONGS that fit all styles of singers. Sincerely yours,
ALBERT VON TILZER.

CHORUS.
 You mustn't pick plums from my plum-tree,
 'Cos I'm saving my plums, you know,
 For a nice little boy that's nice to me,
 Who'll be my steady beau;
 No use your hanging 'round the garden gate,
 'Cos you don't stand 1-2-3.
 You can go and make eyes at some other girl,
 But you mustn't pick plums from my plum-tree.
